

2012 Lois Green Scholarship Award

To recognize a female high school student in grades 10-12 for giving of her Time, Treasures, and Talents to the community

Application Deadline: February 1, 2012

Giving Matters, a program of the Southwest Florida Chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) announces the Lois Green Scholarship Award beginning in 2011. It is offered as part of the Giving Matters commitment to inspire and educate women to realize their power to transform their community and our world through philanthropy. Community Youth Development of Sarasota County is partnering with Giving Matters to promote and facilitate this opportunity to celebrate and recognize the contributions of outstanding female philanthropists.

The Lois Green Scholarship Award will be presented to a current high school student who has influenced the community and her peers by specific philanthropic efforts. The winner will receive a $1,000 prize to be awarded as a $5000 scholarship to the winner's choice of post-secondary educational institution and a $500 contribution to her choice of a local nonprofit organization. The winner will be selected by a panel of judges from the community and will be announced by March 30, 2012.

The winner and a family member will be the special guests at the Giving Matters Luncheon on April 27, 2012, when the award will be presented.
